SHERATON FRANKFURT AIRPORT
HOTEL & CONFERENCE CENTER

TWO UNIQUE EXPERIENCES ONE ADDRESS

Frankfurt Airport Marriott Hotel and Sheraton Frankfurt Airport Hotel & Conference Center is the world's first dual brand hotel combination of two Marriott International Premium brands under one roof and is one of the largest airport hotels in Europe. Its pole position between the check-in counters of Frankfurt Airport Terminal 1 and the AIRrail ICE long-distance train station embedded in the building complex "The Squire" with the "New Work City" makes the hotel a sought-after address in terms of business meetings, conferences and corporate functions in the economic center of the Rhine-Main area. Meet you here, arrive from anywhere.

The airport hotel was initially opened as Sheraton Frankfurt Airport Hotel & Conference Center in 1975 with a total of 555 rooms before a second and third building were added in 1984 and 1988, increasing the room count to 1,050 in total. In January 2020, one of the buildings has been transferred into the Frankfurt Airport Marriott Hotel while the other two buildings remained the Sheraton Frankfurt Airport Hotel & Conference Center, introducing the new dual brand concept after extensive renovations.

As an internationally ranked airport hotel, it keeps pace with the expansion of the airport, thus reinforcing the attractiveness and competitive edge of the city. ## FRANKFURT – A THRILLING METROPOLIS IN THE HEART OF EUROPE

Due to the hotels' convenient location and access to all kind of public transport, Frankfurt city center can be reached within only about 20 minutes. The famous skyline, the river Main, popular shopping malls, the lively and international atmosphere and impressive buildings and museums make the city worth exploring. Frankfurt's diversity is also represented in the many restaurants throughout the city – from international to regional cuisine. The popular traditional restaurants in the districts of Bornheim and Sachsenhausen offer regional treats like Schnitzel and Frankfurt's famous Green Sauce served with apple wine. Plenty of sightseeing options are also available for visitors from all around the world. The historic old town right next to the Römer, the city's historic town hall, or Frankfurt's many churches impress with stunning architecture. Hop-On Hop-Off busses take tourists to the city's main sights and sightseeing cruises explore the city from the river Main. Impressive art exhibitions at the Städel Museum, fascinating natural history at the Senckenberg Museum or a stroll through the Palmengarten, a botanical garden with a variety of tropical and subtropical plants, are just a few cultural highlights Frankfurt has to offer.

BETWEEN A BUSY METROPOLIS AND SCENIC WINE REGIONS: THE RHINE-MAIN-AREA

For guests who want to escape the busy crowds at Frankfurt Airport, the Rhine-Main-Area offers plenty of possibilities. The Taunus, a mountain range outside of Frankfurt with many hiking trails of all lengths and levels or the Rheingau, a nearby wine region which offers countless possibilities to visit cozy towns and wineries, are great for recreational activities of any kind. Rudesheim am Rhein is the perfect destination if you want to experience the historic charme or take a ride on the cableway to enjoy panoramic views. Countless castles in the Rhine-Main-Area invite you to travel back in time and cities like Mainz, Wiesbaden or even Heidelberg are easily accessible via public transport.

ONE DAY IN FRANKFURT

Frankfurt am Main is known as the smallest metropolis in the world and one of the most underestimated cities in Germany. Many business travelers know Frankfurt because of the big and very convenient airport and the innumerable offices in the skyscrapers. But only few of them have discovered the beauty, the hidden treasures and the very special charm of the city at the river Main. Frankfurt is a multifaceted city – skyscrapers vs new old town, modern and hip vs traditional, fine dining vs rustic food, high end shops vs shopping malls, famous museums vs independent small theaters ... and all this can be seen in walking distance. How about enjoying one day in the city center?

Start with a view from above and have a look at Frankfurt from 200 m height at the Main Tower. After that stroll through the financial district and the highrisers. Turn your walk to the Alte Oper. As you see on the way to the opera house, the inner city is surrounded by a green belt, as this park area is called. The Goethestrasse leads you right to the city center – enjoy shops like Tiffany, Gucci, Chanel, Prada etc. In the city center itself you find a very futuristic looking shopping mall, the MyZeil, offering shops like Abercrombie & Fitch, adidas, Hollister, Levi's ... On the way to the river Main you will then pass the New Old Town as well as the Römer, the townhall of Frankfurt. Crossing the river via the pedestrian bridge Eiserner Steg, turn right and follow the riverside. You will then see a big number of famous museums lined up like pearls on a chain on the embankment – such as the Film Museum, the Museum for Architecture, the Museum for Applied Arts and finally the Städel Museum, one of the most important museums in Germany. To round off the day we recommend to remain in Sachsenhausen -this is how this part of Frankfurt is called- and enjoy a dinner at one of the countless traditional "Apfelweinkneipen" (apple wine restaurants). By the end of the day, you will admit that Frankfurt is the smallest and most underestimated metropolis in the world.
